*it's all here...
you should be too!*

North Carolina Coast Host is a membership organization made up of tourism partners such as accommodations, attractions, chambers of commerce, convention & visitor bureaus, publishers and other tourism-related businesses located along North Carolina's 300-mile coastline from Elizabeth City to Calabash. NC Coast Host offers NC Travel Information from I-95 to the North Carolina Coast. Our primary mission is to increase economic growth by promoting travel and tourism in...

Eastern North Carolina

Everywhere you look on our coast you'll find an unrivaled variety of things to do and see, with almost limitless ways to explore them.

Maybe it's a lovingly restored Victorian mansion, rolling vineyard, dive show at one of three NC aquariums, acres of breathtaking gardens, lip-smacking barbeque, famed lighthouses or an earthen fort that served as the last stronghold of the Confederacy.

Northern Region

From the Outer Banks to Roanoke Rapids, from the Dismal Swamp to the Pamlico Sound, this part of North Carolina has many attractions to tempt visitors and locals alike. With two aquariums, three wildlife refuges, the Albemarle Sound, and Jockey's Ridge, there's always something fun to do. Visitors won't want to miss the Wright Brothers Museum, the Roanoke Island Festival Park, the Core Sound Museum, Cupola House, and the Lost Colony outdoor theatre. Light houses abound and ferries make traveling to each destination an adventure. Stay in one of the area's B&B's and try scuba diving North Carolina's famous shipwrecks just off the coast...and that's all just for starters!

Central Region

North Carolina's coastal "center" has a huge military presence that makes it uniquely filled with heroes and their families. From Pamlico to Wilson and "Little" Washington to Topsail Island, North Carolina's maritime and military history is preserved in these beloved communities. Cherry Point, Camp Lejeune, and Seymour Johnson Air Force Base are all located here. With Hammocks Beach State Park, Cliffs of the Neuse, beaches of the Crystal Coast and Topsail Island, a visitor can enjoy the diversity of landscapes, food, and the hospitality of the South. New Bern offers a must-see in Tryon Palace and Pepsi lovers should know that this is Pepsi's birthplace. Other attractions include the Ava Gardner Museum, Civil War sites, birding trails, music trails, great festivals, and the pristine waterfront views from Swansboro, Little Washington, and Jacksonville.

Topsail Island

Southern Region

From Wilmington to Bladen, this area is known for its spectacular beaches, rivers, lakes and fishing. Fort Fisher State Park, House of Flags and the majestic Battleship NC are just a few of the area's attractions. And keep an eye out for a celebrity or two...this area is known for its active film industry, including both TV and movie productions year round. Holden, Ocean Isle, Kure, Wrightsville, Caswell, Oak Island, Sunset and Carolina beaches are some of the most beautiful in the state. Calabash is world renowned for its seafood. Throw in the Cape Fear River, White Lake, and towns like Southport, Wilmington, and Elizabethtown, and the excitement never stops.
